THEATRE PERFORMANCES

Everybody* by Branden Jacobs-Jenkins | Directed by Javier Hurtado

September 27, 28, October 3, 4, 5, 7:30 p.m.; matinees September 29, October 6, 2 p.m. | Studio Theatre

Everybody is a modern retelling of the 15th-century morality tale The Summoning of Everyman. Join Friendship, Kinship, Stuff, Mind, Five Senses, and Understanding as they guide Everybody on their journey through life and destiny and towards Love. Jacobs-Jenkins plays with fate through a casting lottery system and muses on the immorality of racism of our times. This production is Professor Javier Hurtado's directorial debut at CSU.

Content Warning: This production includes adult language, themes, and scenes with nudity. Not appropriate for all ages – over 18 recommended.

Into the Woods* by Stephen Sondheim and James Lapine | Directed by Noah Racey

November 1, 2, 7, 8, 9, 7:30 p.m.; matinees November 3, 10, 2 p.m. | University Theatre

This mythic musical intertwines the plots of several Grimm fairytales as it examines the consequences of our human wishes and quests. As each character utters "I wish..." we follow them into the subconscious woods. In fairytales' unreal, mythic world, we see our humanity more clearly. Broadway veteran Noah Racey directs the annual fall musical.

ON THE BRINK Reading Series / FREE

Times and Locations TBD

Our On the Brink reading series, is aimed at amplifying marginalized voices and exposing students to a diverse array of BI-POC, queer, and women artists from around the nation and world. The plays are chosen by the student board and company. Directors include Professor Saffron Henke, Dr. Javier Hurtado, and special guests.
